LIVE VIDEO CALL LESSONS

The most important aspects in your development as a player are to establish the fundamentals of utilizing gravity and natural movement. Once you have an understanding of how to create a golf swing that is based around an energy efficient motion, you can begin to set goals which reflect the time/energy put into your game. The largest element when trying to accomplish those goals is in building the strongest plan you are capable of; at Gravity Golf, we take pride in our students and aim for every one to create a learning environment in which to thrive.

Each lesson can be done in a live setting, using your smartphone and ear buds, while getting real time feedback. We work with what you have. If you are at a state of the art facility where you can set up on a grass tee with all the different shots at your disposal, or you are working from your backyard into a net, there are ways to maximize the amount of feedback you are receiving and get the most out of the time spent. Each lesson will be recorded to give you the ability to go back and rewatch what you worked on.

A PARADIGM SHIFT IN LEARNING

Gravity Golf Instruction

The magic of the Gravity Golf system lies in the unique drills and curriculums that David and his son Daniel have developed. These specialized techniques are designed to magnify improprieties in power application, which naturally develops a sense of “feel” for each individual student.

What We Offer

- Destination Schools
- Instructor Certifications
- Custom Programs & Curriculums
- Booking Engine for Instructors
- Increased Revenue Streams
- Membership Opportunities

Our Founder

- David Lee, the developer of the “Gravity” Golf teaching system, is a former PGA touring professional turned swing research scientist and teacher.
- David created a paradigm shift for learning the game whereby players develop much faster by training in a mode of weakness and instability, rather than from a mode of strength and stability.
- The “Gravity” swing creates the most distance and control, is easy on the body, works for men, women, and children, and will allow you to develop to your highest potential level – we guarantee it!

What The Pros Say

"David Lee would be the only guy I trust to work on my swing" - Lee Trevino

"From what I have seen, I believe the teaching method you have developed could be applied with great benefits to all level of golfers, and I am happy to give my personal endorsement and full support" - Jack Nicklaus

"David Lee might be the greatest teacher that ever lived" - Chi Chi Rodriguez

What Our Students Say

From Gravity Golf lessons to Club Champion in just three months! What I learned from taking the 3 day course transformed my game. The focus on balance and effortless golf through simple but effective drills resulted in a 6 point drop in my handicap with winning results. At 69 years old I beat a field of competitive golfers 20 years my junior. If I can do it, then you can too – take the challenge with Gravity Golf lessons it is worth it!

-Fionnuala Martin

I am delighted that you are going to continue teaching and promoting Gravity Golf. My game has never been better. Last week, I shot 66 with nine birdies. I owe it all to Gravity Golf.

-Fred Stone

I quit golf after 17 years of frustration! Then I met David Lee by accident, in 4 months I was back to shooting 75. Thanks for all the pleasure I have experienced.

-Rick Nolin
